Reading Challenge 2

Desert Wildlife

A desert is a kind of habitat. Deserts are very dry places that get very little rain. Often deserts are very hot during the day but cool at night. Many desert animals hide under the ground while it is really hot and come out to eat as it starts to get dark. Most desert plants and animals do not need very much water.

Deserts are not easy places for animals to live. Animals who live in them often have special features that help them survive. For example, a scorpion has a hard shell that helps keep water inside its body.

Some desert animals are predators and hunt other animals. Hawks and eagles might eat rabbits, snakes, mice and other birds. Large mammals like coyotes hunt rabbits and mice at night.

Meerkats live and hunt in gangs. At night they rest in burrows linked by tunnels. They eat insects and scorpions. Their ears fold back when they dig to stop soil getting inside.

Did you know?

Kangaroo rats that live in the USA can live their whole lives without ever drinking. They get all the moisture they need from the seeds in their diet.

A perentie is a two metre long lizard that lives in the Australian desert. It will eat anything from birds' eggs to a small kangaroo. It can live for 20 years as nothing threatens it once it is adult.

Reading Comprehension 2- Dessert Life

Read the text on the next page and answer the questions.

1. Why are deserts dry places?

2. How do some animals stay cool during the day?

3. How are meerkats adapted to their life in burrows?

Pirate Adventure

Pirate Pete and his parrot Polly are best friends. They explore The Seven Seas on their trusty ship, The Jolly Roger. Pirate Pete and Polly have had many adventures together.

One morning, Pirate Pete woke up in his cabin. "Good Morning, Polly!" he yawned. There was no answer. Polly was nowhere to be seen. He climbed out of his hammock. He checked behind the anchor. She wasn't there.

He checked all over The Jolly Roger. Polly was no where to be seen. Pirate Pete wondered where Polly could have gone. He asked Pirate Paula if she had seen Polly. She hadn't seen her either.

Pirate Pete was worried. Just then, he heard a clank, a rattle and a clatter. The noise was coming from the treasure chest. Pirate Pete was scared. He carefully tip-toed across the deck. He reached out to the lock and twisted the key.

Suddenly, Pirate Pete was knocked backwards as wings flapped at him. "Squawk!" howled Polly as she flew out of the treasure chest. "There you are!" shouted Pirate Pete. "Found me!" squawked Polly. "I love playing hide and seek. It's your turn!"
